

Sample Wedding Ceremony Script #3

Dearly beloved, we are gathered here in the sight of God, and in the presence of family and friends to join together this man and this woman in Holy Matrimony, which is commended of St. Paul to be an honorable estate, instituted of God and therefore is not to be entered into unadvisedly or carelessly, but reverently, joyfully and in the love of God. Into this holy estate these two persons present come now to be joined. If any person can show just cause why they may not be joined together – let them speak now or forever hold their peace.

"Who gives this bride to this Groom in marriage?"

Jesus Christ reminds us, that at the beginning the Creator made us man and woman, and said, "the two shall become one flesh." God loved us, and created us to love others. Our lives find completion only as we love and are loved in return. Together, we can become what we could never be separately. Marriage is of God.

Love is patient, love is kind. It does not envy, it does not boast, it is not proud. It is not rude, it is not self-seeking, it is not easily angered, it keeps no record of wrongs. Love does not delight in evil but rejoices with the truth. It always protects, always trusts, always hopes, always perseveres. Love never fails. But where there are prophecies, they will cease; where there are tongues, they will be stilled; where there is knowledge, it will pass away. _____ and _____ come today desiring to be united in this sacred relationship.

"Let us Pray" O' Almighty God you have created us all in the image of Love, the image of Yourself. Bless now these two who stand before you. Guide them in your wisdom, shine your light upon them, that as they journey through this life together they will walk as bearers of your Truth. Amen

Please join hands.

I ask you each now, to repeat after me. I, _____, take you _____ for my wedded wife, To love and cherish, For better or worse, for richer or poorer, In sickness and in health. From this day forward for as long as we both shall live.

I, _____, take you _____ for my wedded husband, To love and cherish, For better or worse, for richer or poorer, In sickness and in health. From this day forward for as long as we both shall live.

Personal Wedding Words Exchanged By The Couple

May I have the rings? Bless, O Lord the giving of these rings that they who wear them, may live in your peace and your favor all the days of their life; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen _____ as you place this ring on _____'s finger I ask that you repeat these words: This ring is my sacred gift to you, A symbol of my Love, A sign that from this day forward and always, My Love will surround you, With this ring I thee wed. _____ place this ring on _____'s finger and repeat these words: This ring is my sacred gift to you, A symbol of my Love, A sign that from this day forward and always, My Love will surround you, With this ring I thee wed.

Prayer

Oh, eternal God Creator and preserver, Giver of all spiritual grace, the Author of everlasting life; Send thy blessing upon these thy servants, this man and this woman, whom we bless in thy Name; that they, living faithfully together, may surely perform and keep the vow and covenant between them as symbolized by these rings as a token and pledge, and may ever remain in perfect love and peace together and live according to thy laws." Amen

"For as much as _____ and _____ have consented together in holy matrimony and have witnessed the same before God and those present, and have pledged their faithfulness, each to the other, and have declared their love by giving and receiving Rings and by joining hands, I now, by the authority committed unto me as a minister and a priest, declare that _____ and _____ are husband and wife according to the ordinance of God, in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit,

Those Whom God Has joined together, let no one put asunder. May the Peace and the Unconditional Love of God surround you and remain with you now and forevermore. You may seal you vows with a kiss. Allow me to present Mr. and Mrs. _____
